

Economic Sector – Tourism & Recreation

---

Chris Mangan-Greene, Gananoque

Chris studied as an accounting major and received a Certified General Accountant designation in 1981. Her accounting career is diversified to include public accounting, taxation, industry and education sectors as well as self-employment in her later career.

Chris currently owns and operates Greene Acre Golf which is located just east of Kingston and north of Gananoque. The regulation length 9 hole course situated along the Gananoque River is known as "golfer's best kept secret" and a "gem" in the Cataraqui Region.

Chris has acted as the treasurer for a number of volunteer groups - nursery school, parent advisory council, church and food bank and has coached sport programs and served as a part-time organist in her home parishes.

Chris has four adult children and one grandchild.