

Municipal Sector

Greg Newman, City of Kingston

Greg Newman represents the central municipalities of the Cataraqui Source Protection Area.

Greg is the Manager, Policy Planning for the City of Kingston. He has held previous positions with local municipalities and within the private sector, and has instructed in an adjunct capacity at the Queen's University School of Urban and Regional Planning.

Greg holds degrees from Queen's University (Master of Planning) and the University of Waterloo (Bachelor of Environmental Studies). He is a Member of the Canadian Institute of Planners and is a Registered Professional Planner in Ontario.