

Economic Sector - Industry

Mike Farrell, Bath

Mike Farrell is the Site Environmental Advisor for the Lennox Generating Station at Bath. He has held previous positions with the Government of Canada and within the private sector. Mike is a designated Project Management Professional, and was educated at Trent University and Fleming College.

Protecting the natural environment is a personal and professional priority for Mike, who lives and works in the Cataraqui Source Protection Area.